

Bruce A. Broillet of Greene Broillet & Wheeler, LLP, specializes in plaintiffs trial work. Bruce received his BA from the University of Notre Dame and his JD from the University of Texas School of Law. Bruce handles cases in areas such as personal injury, wrongful death, product liability, professional malpractice, and business litigation.

Bruce has been inducted into The Inner Circle of Advocates, described by the Washington Post as, "A select group of 100 of the nation's most celebrated trial lawyers." He has been listed in "Best Lawyers in America" for over 35 years.

Bruce has been named "Trial Lawyer of the Year" by the Los Angeles Trial Lawyers Association, "Consumer Attorney of the Year" by the Consumer Attorneys of California, "Litigator of the Year" by the Century City Bar Association, and "Los Angeles Lawyer of the Year" for Personal Injury by "Best Lawyers in America." He has repeatedly been named among the Top 100 Lawyers in California and as one of the Top Plaintiffs Lawyers in California by the Los Angeles Daily Journal. He has also been ranked repeatedly among the Top 10 Super Lawyers for Southern California. He has been inducted into the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, the American College of Trial Lawyers, the International Society of Barristers, and the American Board of Trial Advocates.

Bruce is in the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles "Hall of Fame" and the Lawdragon "Hall of Fame". His high profile trials and settlements include the Erin Andrews case against the Nashville Marriott, the family of actor Bill Paxton regarding his death, the County of Los Angeles in the Tobacco litigation, and a New York investment group for which he obtained the largest legal malpractice verdict in the history of California. California Lawyer Magazine named him one of "California's most respected plaintiff's lawyers."

Bruce has served as President of the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles, the Consumer Attorneys of California, and the University of Texas School of Law Alumni Association. He serves on the Board of Trustees of the University of Texas Law School Foundation and the Advisory Council of the University of Notre Dame Institute for Latino Studies.
